

JOURNAL OF THE PRINT WORLD

devoted to antique & contemporary works of fine art on paper

Volume 37 Number 2 April 2014

NEW EDITIONS

Valentina DuBasky, "Amber Birds with Indigo Mountain," 2013, Monotype, 26 1/4 x 45 1/2"

New works from Valentina DuBasky's visit to

Tandem Press. Valentina DuBasky (b. 1951) originally from Washington D.C. earned her B.F.A. and her M.F.A. from Goddard College in Vermont. Her art consists of multiple media including paintings and works on paper, all drawing inspiration from her travels throughout Central and Southeast Asia and often portraying birds, horses, flora and other natural elements. Through her art, DuBasky studies the juxtapositions between the places and times in which their ancient works were created and those of her own time and place, living and working in the 21st century New York City. DuBasky has exhibited at galleries and arts centers throughout the United States. Many of her works have also been included in museum, public and corporate collections both domestically and abroad. Tandem Press. info@tandempress.wisc.edu